The purpose or purposes of The Buffalo Numismatic Association is to foster the camaraderie of fellow numismatists and to educate each other in the numerous aspects of numismatics in general. To welcome new collectors and students of numismatics to our fraternity and share with them the knowledge that we possess. To maintain and expand a reference center for the use of all members in good standing. From time to time to promote a bourse and have an annual show open to the public for the purpose of adding to the collections of the members and the public alike. This shall be conducted as a not-for-profit venture. Excess funds generated shall be used to expand the Association's reference center or pay bills due. At various times, at the directors' or officers' discretion, hold social functions for the members and their immediate families (spouses and children).

ARTICLE I

1) NAME of ORGANIZATION

The name of this organization shall be THE BUFFALO NUMISMATIC ASSOCIATION, INC.

ARTICLE II

1) NOT-FOR-PROFIT ORGANIZATION

- A. The B.N.A. Corporation is organized and shall be operated as a not-for-profit. It shall not have the power to issue certificates or stock or to declare or pay dividends. No part of the net income or net earnings of the corporation shall benefit any private individual, firm, or corporation. No officer or member of the corporation shall receive or be lawfully entitled to receive any financial benefits from the operation thereof except as reasonable compensation for services. No member or director of the corporation shall receive any salary, wages, or other compensation of any kind for services as such member or director other than reimbursement of actual and necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his/her duties.

- B. Dissolution of the Association:
The dissolution process must be initiated by the Board of Directors and approved by the general membership with a two-thirds majority vote, and executed in accordance with New York State law.
- C. The fiscal year for the incorporated Association shall end annually on the last day of December. An annual financial report will be made available to the membership at the January meeting each year. Applicable tax forms must be filed annually.

ARTICLE III

1) OFFICERS

The officers of the Association shall consist of a Board of Directors comprised of five (5) Directors at Large and four (4) Executive Officers. The Executive Officers will consist of a President, Vice President, Treasurer, and Secretary. All Directors at Large and Executive Officers must maintain their membership in good standing throughout their term of office. The members of the Board of Directors must and shall abide by the laws of the land then current and follow the rules and regulations as set forth by the American Numismatic Association for as long as the B.N.A. is affiliated with that organization. The Board of Directors is responsible for the business of the Association and shall perform its duties in a manner that is satisfactory to the membership.

ARTICLE IV

1) ELECTION OF DIRECTORS AT LARGE AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

- A. Directors at Large shall be elected for a term of two (2) years.
- B. Executive Officers shall be elected for a term of two (2) years.
- C. Nominating Period: Nominations for the Board of Directors will open on the first day of October. A call for nominations will be made at every General Membership Meeting until the nominating period closes. The nominating period will close on the last day of November.
- D. Nominating Procedure: Once the call for nominations has begun, any member in good standing may make a nomination. Only members in good standing and members eighteen years of age or older can be nominated. Nominations must be made in person at a General Membership Meeting. The nominee must accept or decline the nomination. If the nomination is accepted, a call for a second will be made immediately. If the nomination fails to garner a second, that nomination will be null and void. Nominations that are seconded will be considered a candidate for that position. The Secretary will record all nominations and the result of the subsequent call for a second.
- E. Meeting Cancelations: If, for any reason, a General Membership Meeting is not held during the nomination period, these items will be in effect for the first meeting after the canceled meeting(s).

The Bylaws of The Buffalo Numismatic Association

November 14, 2023

- F. Nomination Limits: Up to three (3) nominations may be made for each of the four (4) Executive Officer positions. The first three (3) successful nominations will be the candidates for that office. Subsequent nominations for that office will not be considered. Any number of nominations may be made for the Directors at Large positions.
- G. Nomination Results: After the nomination period is closed, The Secretary will publish the list of candidates in the next newsletter or communicate to the general membership by some other means the names of all candidates. This must be accomplished before the general membership meeting where the election is held.
- H. Candidate Statements: Any and all candidates, if they choose, may supply the editor of the B.N.A. Newsletter with a brief description of themselves and what they propose to do to improve the Association. The statement will be limited to 500 words. The candidates, if they choose, may also present a brief talk before the the General Membership Meeting where the elections will be held, stating their intentions. The talk will be limited to two minutes. There will be no questions from the membership, and the membership may not interrupt the speaker.
- I. Voting: The voting shall be by secret ballot. Every member in good standing present at the December General Membership meeting may cast one (1) vote for each of the four (4) Executive Officers and five (5) votes for the Directors At Large. If any candidate is running unopposed, the Secretary shall record one vote for that candidate and record it as required.
- J. Meeting Cancellation: If, for any reason, a General Membership Meeting is not held during December, the vote for the Board of Directors positions will be taken at the next General Membership Meeting. If the nomination period was also extended due to cancellation, the vote will be taken at the first General Membership Meeting after the requirements for the nomination procedure have been fulfilled. Nominations and voting will never occur at the same General Membership Meeting.
- K. Election Tellers: Two (2) Election Tellers shall be selected and approved by the general membership. These tellers shall count the ballots and record the results of the election with the Secretary. The results of the election shall be announced at the meeting and published in the B.N.A. Newsletter or via some other means of communication to the membership.
- L. Term of Office: The newly elected Directors at Large and/or Executive Officers shall assume their respective offices for the Association on the first day of January. If the vote was delayed due to meeting cancellation(s), they shall assume their respective offices immediately. Regardless of meeting cancellations, all terms of office expire on the last day of December.
- M. Transition: Previous Directors at Large or Executive Officers, upon completion of their elected terms, resignation, or removal from the Board of Directors, shall turn over to their successors or The Board of Directors in the event that a successor has not been designated, all B.N.A. property, funds and associated paperwork as soon as possible.
- N. Resignations from the Board of Directors
Any Executive Officer or Director at Large may resign from their office at any time by providing written notice to the Board of Directors.

O. Removal from the Board of Directors:

1. Any member in good standing may make a motion to remove any Executive Officer or Director at Large from their office. Roberts Rules of Order will be followed to consider the motion and debate it. A simple majority is required to approve the motion so it may move on to the voting stage.
2. There will be a minimum 30-day waiting period between the approval of the motion for removal and the final General Membership vote that authorizes the removal.
3. Only members in good standing and who attend the General Membership Meeting in person will be eligible to vote. The vote will be by secret ballot. The general membership will select and approve two (2) members to act as Tellers to count the votes.
4. For the motion to be successful, a minimum of two-thirds of the eligible voters must vote in favor of the removal motion.
5. If the motion is not brought to a vote within ninety (90) days from when the motion was approved, the motion will expire and to be considered null and void.
6. A subsequent motion for removal of the same Board of Director member cannot be made for a minimum of 120 days after the unsuccessful General Membership vote or the expiration of the motion.

P. Directors at Large Vacancy: Should a vacancy occur in any of the Directors at Large position for any reason, the remaining four (4) Directors at Large shall, by a minimum vote of three (3) in favor, appoint a member in good standing to complete any unexpired term until the next scheduled election. Vacant positions must be filled within sixty (60) days of the vacancy.

Q. Executive Officer Vacancy: Should any vacancy occur among the four (4) Executive Officers for any reason, the Directors at Large and the three (3) remaining Executive Officers shall, by a minimum vote of five (5) in favor, appoint a member in good standing to fill that office until the next scheduled election.

2) BOARD OF DIRECTORS MEETINGS

- a) Regularly Scheduled Meetings: A minimum of four (4) Board of Directors meetings per year will be held, with a minimum of 30 days between regularly scheduled meetings.
- b) Special Meetings: A Special Meeting may be called at any time by the Board of Directors. The President may, when he/she deems it necessary, or the Secretary shall, at the request in writing from three members of the Board of Directors, issue a call for a Special Board of Directors Meeting. Five days' notice must be given to all members of the Board of Directors before a special meeting is held. If five days' notice is not given, the Special Board of Directors Meeting shall be declared null and void.
- c) Order of Business: The order of business at all Board of Directors Meetings shall be determined by the President or, in his/her absence, the Vice President. All business shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order.

ARTICLE V

1) AMENDMENTS TO BY-LAWS

Any changes and amendments to these bylaws must follow the procedure detailed below:

A. Proposed Amendments:

Any member of the Board of Directors may propose amendments to these bylaws.

B. Support or Oppose by the Board of Directors:

Before the proposed amendments are brought to the General Membership, the Board of Directors will vote by a simple majority to support or oppose the amendments. A vote to “oppose” the amendments will not preclude the amendments from being brought to a vote by the General Membership. The outcome of this vote will be made known to the General Membership.

C. Dissemination of Proposed Amendments:

The proposed amendments will be disseminated to the General Membership via verbal, hard copy, and/or electronic means at least thirty (30) days before the proposed amendments are voted on by the General Membership.

D. Voting by the General Membership:

After the above requirements have been met, the proposed amendments will be brought to a vote at any subsequent General Membership Meeting. If a successful motion for a secret ballot is made, the General Membership will select and approve two (2) members to act as Tellers to count the votes. Otherwise, a voice or roll call vote may be used. Only members in good standing will be eligible to vote.

E. Approval of Proposed Amendments:

For the amendments to be approved, a minimum of two-thirds of the eligible voters in attendance at the General Membership Meeting must vote in favor of approving the amendments.

F. Time Limits:

If the proposed amendments are not brought to a vote within ninety (90) days from when the amendments were published, the amendment process will be considered null and void and must start again from the beginning.
